Getting Social

We're excited to announce that College Corps is now on social media! Stay connected with us on Instagram, TikTok, and X for the latest updates, fellow highlights, and spotlights on our incredible Community Host Partners.

See how our fellows are making a positive impact in the community by clicking the icons below. Follow along and be part of the conversation—we can't wait to connect with you!

Fellow in Focus: German Sarabia

Our fellows are amazing! Meet German Sarabia, a Cohort 3 fellow working in Food Insecurity with CSUB's Food Pantry. As a Business Administration major in Accounting (with a minor in Spanish), he loves helping and making a positive impact on his campus community. Read his quote below on why you should join College Corps!

"[You] are able to gain hands on experience and make great connections that can lead to further opportunities."

Leaders in Action

In January, our fellows attended the Mid-Year Leadership Workshop at Cal Poly SLO, hosted by California Volunteers. They connected with Central California fellows, shared ideas, and strengthened their commitment to service. The event opened with a vibrant performance by Imagen Y Espiritu Ballet Folklórico de Cal Poly.
