Fellow in Focus: Isabella Alcala

Our fellows are amazing! Meet Isabella Alcala, a Cohort 3 fellow working in Food Insecurity with CAPK Food Bank. As a Child, Adolescent, and Family Studies major, she loves getting to meet new people while gaining new skills. Read Isabella's quote below on why you should join College Corps!

What is College Corps?

We will be at various campus events to answer this question and more of your inquiries! Visit our tabling and information sessions to learn about the program, student eligibility, and how to apply to Cohort 4.

Find more details on our upcoming information sessions here. Don't miss out on this chance to build valuable skills and make a meaningful impact in our community while earning $10,000.

"[You gain] experience and new skills. It's also a way to meet new people and learn more about the community."

Fellows in Action

Our College Corps fellows were invited to volunteer at Wind Wolves Preserve's annual Spring Nature Festival this weekend (March 29-30). This free, family-friendly event features guided hikes, wildlife presentations, educational activities, and crafts. Join the Spring activities for a fun-filled weekend and experience the beauty of nature!
