APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

All CSU applications must be submitted online at www.calstate.edu/apply. Visitors to this site can find specific information for the application procedures for Freshman, Transfer, Graduate, and International students, as well as for those seeking a Teacher Credential. This site also contains a link to Application Dates and Deadlines, as well as a link to the CSU Applicant Help Center for additional resources.

Detailed information on Application Procedures and Policies can also be found at <https://catalog.csub.edu/policies-procedures/admissions-requirements-procedures-policies/>.

Requirements for admission to CSU Bakersfield are in accordance with Title 5, Chapter 1, Subchapter 3 of the California Code of Regulations. Complete information is available at www.calstate.edu.

FRESHMAN APPLICATION CHECKLIST

When you're ready to begin your application to the CSU, be sure to have these items on hand:

- Unofficial transcripts (both high school and college transcripts, if applicable): You'll be asked to enter all the courses you've completed on your CSU application; those that are currently in progress; and any you plan to take. Transcripts will be requested by campuses as needed.
- Your Social Security number, if you have one.
- Your citizenship status
- Credit card or PayPal account: Application fees are due at time of submission.
- Annual income: Your parents' if you are a dependent; your income if you are independent.
- Educational Program, Work and Extracurricular Participation information: You will need to provide the years you participated in college preparation programs and your average number of hours per week of work and/or participation in extracurricular activities.
- Information needed to apply to EOP (if applying): See the Apply to Educational Opportunity Program \(EOP\) website for information about materials needed to complete the optional EOP application.
- Test scores: Optional; if you have taken or plan to take the ACT, SAT, AP, IB exams, you may include the information on the application. Reporting test scores is not required. SAT and ACT scores will not be used for determining who gets admitted into the CSU. If you are accepted, the campus will use official test scores for placement into mathematics and English courses.
- California statewide student ID: Optional; every K-12 student in a California public school is assigned an ID number. The number should be printed on your transcript.

GETTING THROUGH THE EMCE PROGRAM

ADVISING

The faculty and staff in the Department of English are ready to advise and mentor you as you pursue your degree with us. We can help you choose your required classes and electives, discuss your academic interests, and work with you as you consider your future career. You can talk to any professor you like. Just contact them after class or through email, and they will make time for you.

As you plan your schedule each semester, the first place to start is the College of Arts & Humanities Student Center. Each term, make an appointment through the link below. The advisors will review the courses being offered, assist as you set up your schedule, update your concentration outline, and help you when it comes time to apply for graduation. They work closely with the department chair to make sure you are moving toward graduation in a timely fashion.

For complete information on the College of Art & Humanities Student Center, including hours of operation and contact information, visit www.csub.edu/ah/studentcenter. To make an appointment to see a College of Arts & Humanities Student Center Advisor, visit www.csub.edu/ah/making-appointment. For specific advising related to the English Major with Credential Emphasis (EMCE), contact Dr. Dan Stockwell at dstockwell@csb.edu.

MINORS

The English Department offers the following minors:

Minor in English Literature

The minimum requirements for a minor in English Literature are four (4) courses in English literature totaling 12 semester units, at the 2000 level or above, at least three of which must be upper division. Courses that satisfy the GWAR, or courses in Linguistics or Children's Literature, do not count towards the minor in English Literature.

Minor in Linguistics

The minor in Linguistics is especially useful for elementary and secondary teachers and for those interested in English as a Second Language (ESL) instruction. It consists of four three-unit courses: ENGL 3610 and three additional upper-division linguistics courses from the following: ENGL 3640, ENGL 3650, ENGL 4648, ENGL 4650.

Minor in Children's Literature

The minor in Children's Literature indicates the completion of specialized study in children's and young adult literature. The following four courses totaling 12 semester units are required: ENGL 4410, ENGL 4420, ENGL 4430, and ENGL 4440.

FINISHING THE EMCE PROGRAM

APPLYING FOR GRADUATION

All students must apply online for graduation, which will initiate the graduation evaluation process. As an undergraduate student, once you have completed 84 semester units, a link to apply online for graduation will be available on your MyCSUB Student Center. In addition, you will receive an email notification that you may be eligible to apply for graduation.

Before applying for graduation, you should review your academic requirements with your academic advisor. You should confirm that you are within two semesters of completing all remaining graduation requirements.

Detailed information on application deadlines and online application procedures, as well as graduation checklists, can be found at www.csub.edu/registrar/graduation.

The Single Subject Credential Program, offered through the Teacher Education Department, prepares candidates to teach in a specific subject in departmentalized classes as generally found in middle schools and high schools, such as seen in grades 6-12.

CSUB's teacher credentialing preparation programs are accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) and are a member in good standing of the Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation (AAQEP), a national accrediting organization recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. For more detailed information on CSUB's Single Subject Credential Program, visit the Teacher Education Department's webpage at www.csub.edu/teachereducation.

Please contact the Student Center for the College of Arts and Humanities at arts.humanities@csub.edu to inquire about your single subject waiver (subject matter competency).

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

English Club: Students majoring or minoring in English are welcome to meet in an informal setting to discuss literature, language, classes, and all other aspects of campus life. Meetings are generally held every other Friday afternoon.

Sigma Tau Delta: The English Department is home to the Xi Tau Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, an international honor society for English majors and minors. Juniors, seniors, and graduate students are encouraged to apply.

PUBLICATIONS

Calliope: Calliope is an academic journal produced annually that publishes literary criticism, scholarship, and book reviews written by students at CSUB. The editorial team is faculty advised but composed of students, who learn publishing practices and oversee every step of review, layout, and production.

Orpheus: Orpheus is a literary journal published annually to encourage creative writing and artistic thinking among the students of CSUB. The editorial team is faculty advised, but composed of a student body, which oversees every step of production.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Sigma Tau Delta Creative Writing Awards: The Sigma Tau Delta Creative Writing Awards are presented annually to honor the creative work of CSUB students.

The Li'i Pearl Outstanding Student in English Award: The Pearl Prize honors a student who has made a special contribution to the department, the school, the university, and/or the community at large and who serves as a "proud representative" of the department.

EVENTS

The California Writers Series: Each year the English Department sponsors two or more readings by poets and fiction writers living and working in California.

The Lectures in Language and Linguistics: The L3 series aims to bring a California-based linguist and/or language expert to CSUB's campus every semester to speak on a given topic and meet with students and faculty.
