GFCAB SPEAKER SERIES 2025-26

FARMER FOCUS:
Steve Murray

Steve Murray, founder and owner of Murray Family Farms, has spent over three decades cultivating innovation and community in Kern County agriculture. Starting with a credit card and a dream and developing more than 300 acres into thriving farms—including the iconic Big Red Barn and Little Purple Barn—to serving on numerous local boards, Steve embodies leadership rooted in hard work, sustainability, and family values. His journey inspires future generations to grow with purpose and passion. Join us to hear Steve share his insights and inspire the next generation of ag leaders.
