

SALUTE TO OUR LOCAL HEROES 5/1/11

Alma Grant
Photo Story
Comm. 306
Prof. Judith Pratt
Prof. John Emig

The band Street Dreams performs sound check on stage right before the gates open for the event.

The tables sit empty awaiting the arrival of guests.

The waterfall is started up and flows into the pool below it.

E.T Roberts D Day war veteran and Marc McCasling look at a display featured at the Olive Drab Drivers exhibit.

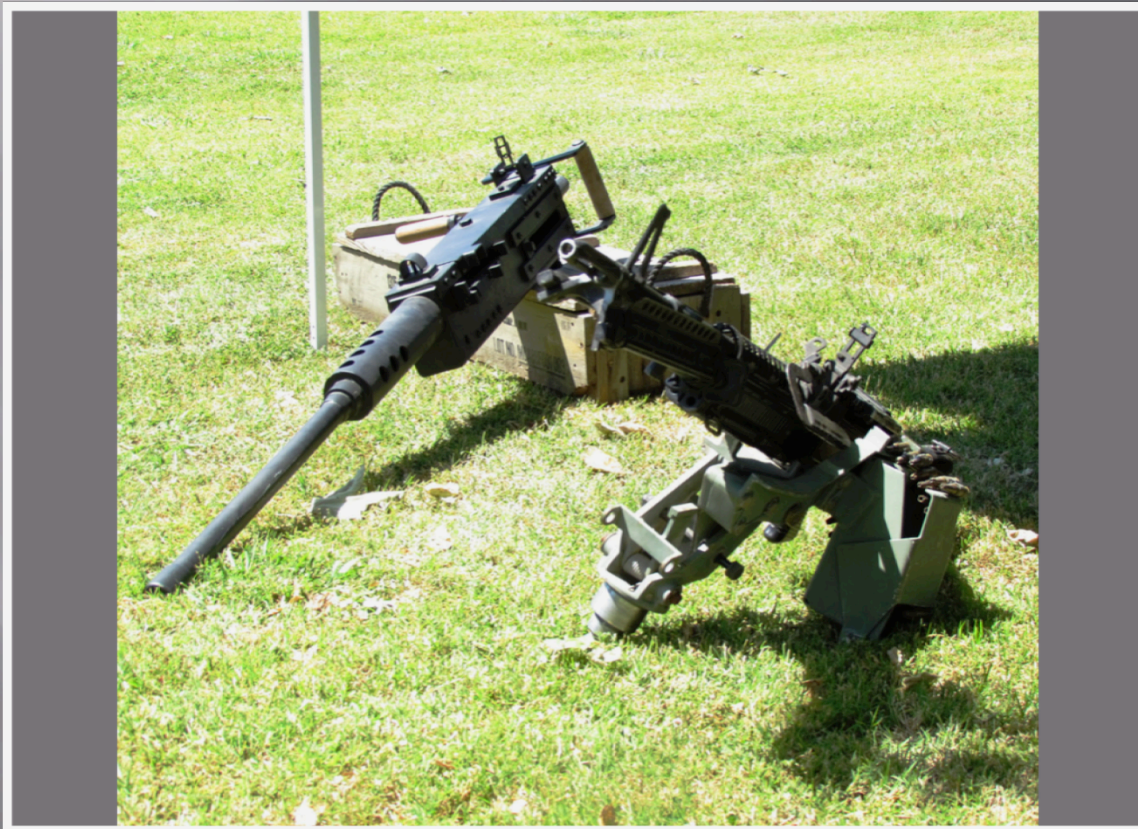

One of the military vehicles displayed by the Olive Drab Drivers military club.

Restored military equipment and gear displayed by the Olive Drab Drivers military club.

Restored military guns displayed by the Olive Drab Drivers military club.

A military war vehicle displayed by the marines corporation.

A restored military vehicle for sale by the Minter Fields Military Museum.

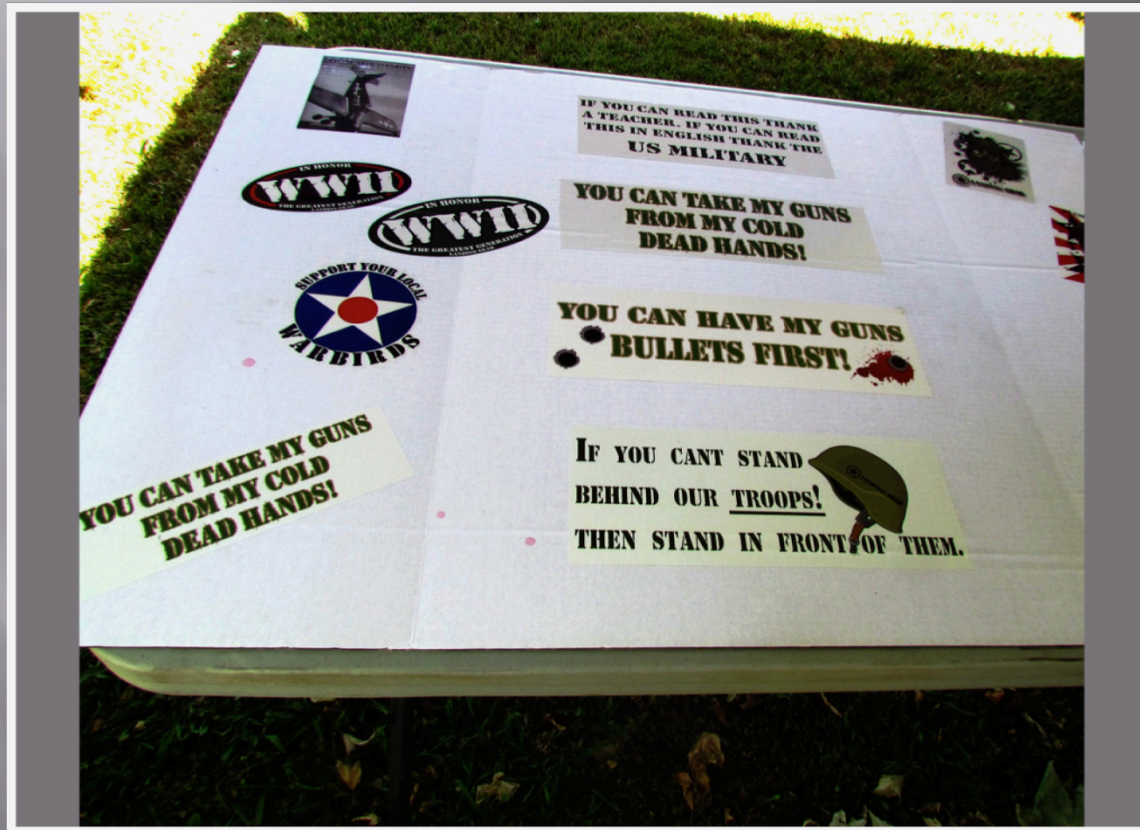

Restored military vehicles displayed by the Minter Fields Military Museum.

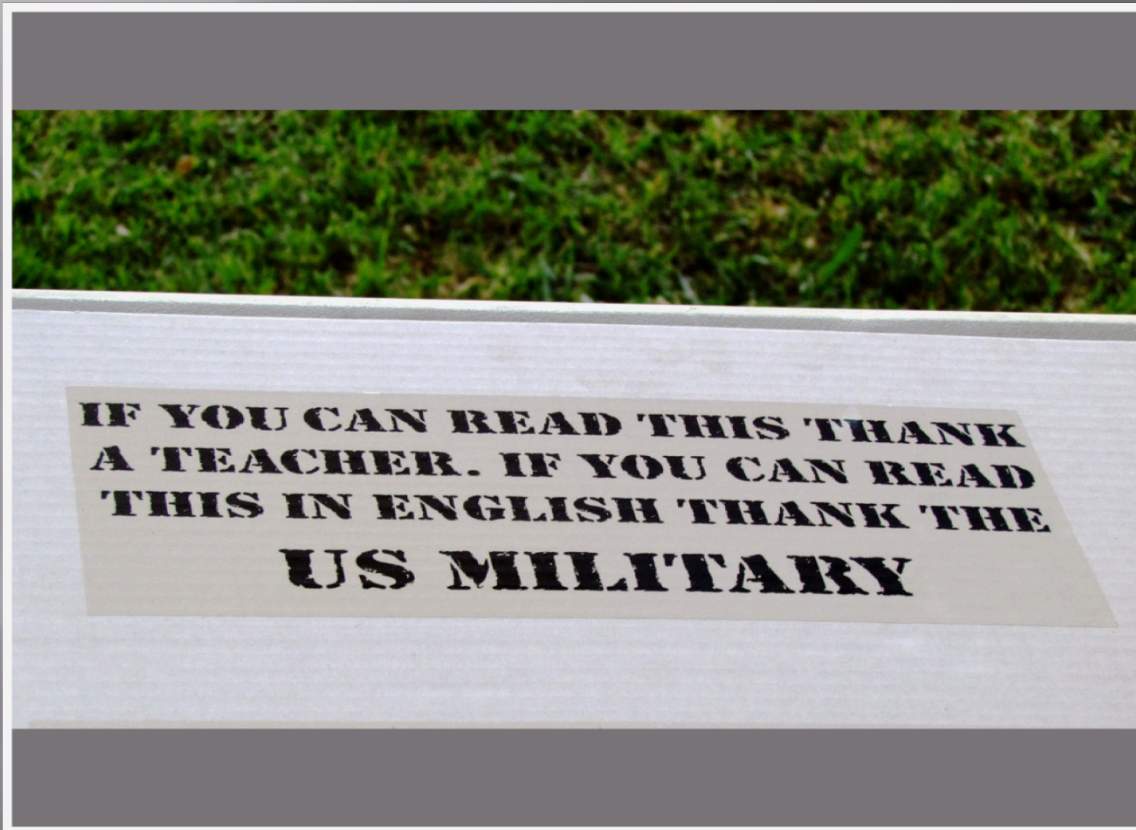

Andrew Larsen and Jylan Wattenbarter play pretend war here in a 1943 Studebaker M29 Weasel.

A poster board display of Military catch phrases.

A popular military catch phrase displayed on a poster board at one of the exhibits.

The American flag displayed high above the stage at the event.

Sergeant Hill Reyes standing in front of his exhibit of 50 fallen war heroes.

The famous banner commemorating September 11 2001 hung by the entrance of the event.

