

Main entrance to the main stage on the track.

Mark Samonte

“The Wall of Life” remembering people who passed away from cancer.

Many volunteers walking around on the track.

One of the many cardboard cars created for the Relay for Life race.

A L.E.D. (Light-emitting diode) screen for the people who are far away from the main stage.

Trainers from In-Shape gym motivating many people to stretch before the Zumba dance.

Some of the many sponsors for Relay for Life.

Team "Army of Angels" selling ribbons to help reach the $2 million mark.

Cardboard box cars parked in the middle of the strip to be shown off to the public.

California State University, Bakersfield team volunteering in Relay for Life.

Curves gym selling raffle tickets for a handmade quilt to help reach the $2 million mark.

Weathercaster Aaron Perlman from CBS 29/Fox 58 competing in the “Drag Race” for Relay for Life.

Audience watching the “Drag race” on the main stage.

Anchor Robin Mangarin from KGET TV 17 news choosing the “Drag race” champion.

The cardboard box race at Relay for Life.

Some of the many Relay for Life luminaria bags around the track.